

HELP WANTED

HAVE A PASSION FOR BASKETBALL OR AN INTEREST IN GOVERNANCE?

WE'RE PARTICULARLY INTERESTED IN CANDIDATES WHO

Represent Māori/Pasifika/Asian/Immigrant communities - We're dedicated to inclusivity and building connections within our diverse communities. TCBA is on a deliberate journey in Te Ao Māori to shape how we engage within our communities, ensuring authenticity in our approach.

FINANCIAL EXPERTISE

We're ideally seeking a Chartered Accountant to provide financial oversight, analysing statements, assessing financial viability, contributing to planning, and supporting the Committee's financial knowledge.

LEGAL EXPERTISE

With impending changes required due to the updated Incorporated Societies Act, we will need expert legal guidance to reform our constitution and navigate legal matters.

LEADERSHIP EXPERTISE

Individuals with governance leadership experience in similar organisations, such as Chair, Vice Chair, or Committee Lead, would greatly benefit our team.

DIVERSE VOICES

We welcome applications from all backgrounds, including youth and those new to governance. It's crucial to have diverse voices at the table, including those involved in playing, coaching, refereeing, or managing at any level within the basketball or wider sporting community.

ABOUT THE POSITION

Our Executive Committee is the driving force behind TCBA's mission to create an environment where basketball players can achieve their best. And guess what? We're on the lookout for community-minded individuals to diversify our team and steer us towards success. If you're all about making moves in the not-for-profit and sports scenes, this could be your opportunity. Whether you're a governance guru or eager to make a difference, we want to hear from you. Plus, if you're based anywhere from Waihi through Tauranga to the Eastern Bay, you're in our zone!

REQUIREMENTS

- Financial acumen to fulfill fiduciary duties.
- Monthly commitment to committee meetings for a minimum of two years.
- Reside within the Coastal Bay of Plenty.

Ready to make an impact?

Send your application to exec@tauranga.basketball.co.nz, highlighting your alignment with our criteria and why you'd be a great addition to the TCBA Executive Committee!

Head to taurangacitybasketball.co.nz for more information.